6 以下の英文は1年間アメリカの学校へ留学した，Mukai Mioさん（16歳）の英文日記です。英文を読んで以下の問いに答えなさい。

September 5

Today is my first day at the American school. I was very nervous in the morning because everything was (1) to me. The school building is very big, and there are many students I don't know. My teachers and classmates were very kind, and some students helped me find my classroom. The lessons are all English, so it was hard to understand everything, but I did my best to listen carefully. I hope I can make many friends soon and learn a lot this year. I feel excited but also a little worried. I miss my family, but I want to enjoy this experience.

September 10

Today, in English class, I did a speech to introduce myself. I was very nervous and my voice shook, but the class clapped for me. I was happy. The teacher said, "You did very well." The class is very fast, and it's still hard to understand, but I try to write notes and learn. After school, I studied English a little in the library. I feel I am growing every day, and I want to try harder. I think I am slowly feeling (2) about living here.

October 28

Today is Sunday, so no school. In the morning, I went shopping with my host family at a big supermarket nearby. The supermarket was very big, and there were many foods and snacks I had never seen before. There were many kinds of potato chips, and I wanted to (3) them all. In the afternoon, I went hiking with my host family. The air in the mountains was very clean, and I only heard the sounds of nature. We found a small pond and took pictures. We also saw some birds. My host mom said, " This time is very important." At night, I got ready for school tomorrow and went to bed early. I think spending time with my family is the most important thing in this study abroad life.

November 3

The weather is getting colder now because fall is here. Today, my school held a Thanksgiving event. We learned about the history of Thanksgiving and shared food in the cafeteria. Everyone brought different dishes, and I tried pumpkin pie for the first time. It was sweet and a little strange, but I liked it. At the event, students talked about what they are thankful for, and I said I'm thankful to have this chance to study abroad. Sometimes I feel lonely and miss my family, but events like this help me feel I'm not alone. I am happy to be here and learn about American culture. Sometimes English is (4) to speak, but I try to practice every day. I want to get better at English and learn more about American culture.

January 8

(5) break is over, and school started again today. It's very cold outside, and sometimes it snows! This morning, I wore a big coat, scarf, and gloves to keep warm. At school, we learned about New Year's traditions in America, which are different from Japan. For example, people watch the ball drop in New York City on TV and make a plan for the new year. I shared how we celebrate New Year in Japan, and my classmates were interested.

March 17

Spring is coming, and the weather is (6) now. In Japan, cherry blossoms bloom at this time, but here there are many other flowers. Today, I played basketball with my friends during gym class. I'm not very good at basketball, but my friends helped me feel good and learn the rules.
(a)[be part / it / fun / of / to / the team / was]. I'm trying to join the basketball club after school to practice more. I'm getting better at talking to my classmates more easily and enjoying my time at school.

June 18

Tomorrow is my last day in America. I will go back to Japan. I feel a little sad because I will miss my friends and the places here. But I also feel happy because I will see my family and friends in Japan soon. During my time here, I learned a lot of things. I practiced English every day and got better. I made many new friends from different places. We played games, talked, and shared stories. The food in America was different from Japan. Sometimes I missed Japanese (7) , but I enjoyed trying new kinds of food like burgers and pizza. I am thankful for this experience. It was fun and helped me grow. I hope I can use my English skills more when I go back to Japan.
